Road Scholars: The Story of Twenty-Eight Kids Who Decided to Take a Hike for Their Health Dorith E. Peleg, Robert Sweetgall

The true story of 28 5th grade students making a 48 mile journey from Amherst to Worcester, Massachusetts. Over hills and through valleys they traveled, passing farmlands and streams, visiting historic inns and colonial villages along the way. This was a special kind of education: four days of fun and friendship, 130,000 footsteps of give and take, and a new commitment to health. Great reading!
