Carsten Holler's extraordinary artistic production is reflected in this remarkable publication. Documenting three exhibitions - including a world premiere - it presents each exhibition within its own book, the whole ingeniously bound together into a single binding, thereby making this volume the most comprehensive and stimulating inquiry into Holler's career to date. Three essays elucidate the exhibitions, notably The Belgian Project, a complex new installation requiring assistance from zoos, wildlife specialists and the Canadian Ministry of Natural Resources. Fully illustrated. Shrinkwrapped.
