Sr. Tigre solto na selva (Portuguese Edition) Peter Brown

Ninguém esperava isso do sr. Tigre. Sempre tão comportado, tão polido, tão educado. De terno e cartola, lá estava ele, totalmente acostumado à vida na cidade, aos cumprimentos distantes, ao refinado chá da tarde – a um mundo em que todos os animais mal parecem... animais. No fundo, o sr. Tigre sabia que tinha alguma coisa faltando. Ele queria se soltar, queria ser selvagem. E um dia, foi isso o que ele fez. Só que, num mundo tão civilizado, a mudança não pegou muito bem.

Ao viver o conflito entre o que esperavam dele e o que ele realmente queria ser, o sr. Tigre mostra as dificuldades que qualquer criança (ou adulto) já enfrentou e vai enfrentar tantas e tantas vezes enquanto descobre seu verdadeiro lugar no mundo. Até onde vale a pena ir para encontrar a si mesmo? O que é ser igual e o que é ser diferente, afinal?

Em defesa da liberdade de ser você mesmo, Sr. Tigre solto na selva traduz com simplicidade uma lição importante e extremamente positiva, daquelas que o pequeno leitor, que ainda vai crescer e mudar tantas vezes na vida, merece ter na lembrança.

Sr. Tigre solto na selva figurou em diversas listas de melhores livros do ano nos Estados Unidos, entre elas as da Publishers Weekly, da Amazon e da Booklist. Também foi premiado com o Boston Globe-Horn Book Awards Picture Book, além de ter figurado entre os best-sellers do The New York Times.

Peter Brown é autor e ilustrador premiado com o Best Illustrated Children's Book Award, do The New York Times, e eleito ilustrador do ano pelo Children's Choice Book Award.
