Life-transforming Bible Studies

Esther faced peril at every turn. She was taken from her family to live as part of a powerful king's harem and chosen as his wife after he banished his last wife from his presence for disobeying him. She lived secretly as a Jew in a household of anti-Semites, but bravely faced her fears in order to save her people from slaughter. Yet through it all, an unseen hand was guiding her life.

With this Walk Thru the Bible discussion guide, you will be inspired and strengthened in your Christian witness as you recognize that we too are living in a world hostile to our faith. And you will marvel at the large and small ways God molds your life and circumstances to fulfill his eternal purposes.

This guide will help the members of your group dig deeply, engage each other, and relate biblical teachings to their lives with amazing clarity.
