Lonely Planet Brasil (Portuguese Edition) Lonely Planet

Neste ano em que recebemos a Copa do Mundo da FIFA, o mundo todo está de olho no Brasil. E não só no eixo Rio-São Paulo, mas em todo canto, de leste a oeste, de norte a sul. Não haveria momento melhor para o lançamento do guia Lonely Planet: Brasil, da Globo Livros, o companheiro ideal para desvendar as belezas do nosso país. Suas dicas valiosas surpreenderão mesmo o mais viajante dos brasileiros.

Onde fica São Miguel do Gostoso, mesmo? Como chegar à Floresta Nacional do Tapajós? E que fazer para ir de Tabatinga (Brasil) para Letícia (Colômbia), ambas às margens do rio Amazonas? Está aí um país imenso, lindo e aguardando novas visitas. Para responder a essas e muitas outras questões, as quase 750 páginas do guia, divididas por grupos de estados, cobrem pormenores do território brasileiro e ainda mostram os pontos mais interessantes em mapas detalhados e belas fotos coloridas.

Amantes da natureza – e que natureza! – não saberão por onde começar: de cavalgadas no Pantanal aos vários pontos de mergulho na costa, passando por vários (e incríveis) parques nacionais, há emoção para todo lado. Que tal se refrescar em uma das lagoas cristalinas dos insólitos Lençóis Maranhenses? Avistar um tucano de pertinho ou um boto cor-de-rosa passando bem ao lado do seu barco pode ser mais fácil do que você imagina – basta estar no lugar certo.

Atrações clássicas, como o Pão de Açúcar, as Cataratas do Iguaçu e os museus de São Paulo, também recebem atenção, é claro, assim como o nosso amado Carnaval. Mas o espírito de aventura que caracteriza a Lonely Planet também leva o leitor a trilhas pela Ilha Grande, aos mergulhos no Abismo de Anhumas, em Bonito, e às praias quase intocadas de Alter do Chão. Cidades coloniais, como Paraty, Ouro Preto e Olinda, ganham um carinho especial.

Os sete autores, todos apaixonados pelo país, reuniram ótimas dicas para quem viaja de carro, ônibus, avião e barco, apontando as épocas ideais para ir a cada destino, além de sugestões de hotéis, pousadas e restaurantes em todo lugar possível e imaginável. No Guia de Sobrevivência, orientações práticas e alertas para fugir de armadilhas turísticas são muito úteis para quem está com o pé na estrada.

Para completar, a seção Entenda o Brasil tem capítulos inteiros dedicados às atualidades do país, sua história, sua música, suas artes e belezas naturais. É tanta informação – e tão bem explicadinha – que nem parece que o guia foi escrito por gringos. Não é que eles entenderam mesmo o Brasil?
