Advanced Introduction to Public Management and Administration (Elgar Advanced Introductions)

Christopher Pollitt

'This masterly introduction reflects Christopher Pollitt's decades of experience as a practitioner, adviser and top international scholar. It offers a balanced and judicious account of how this complex and fascinating subject has developed, how it can be approached and its possible futures. And above all, it shows us why public management and administration is so important in our world today.'

- Christopher Hood, All Souls College, Oxford, UK

'Christopher Pollitt's new book is a bright contribution to the literature on public management and administration. The overall picture of the academic field is written from a pluralistic variety of interesting and relevant perspectives. His endeavour to picture relevant megatrends in the field, and to draw some sketches of the future, shows his wide-ranging and thorough-going mastering of the subject. Pollitt's humorous and eloquent writing style makes it a true pleasure to read the book.'

- Walter Kickert, Erasmus University Rotterdam, the Netherlands

'This truly is an Advanced Introduction, by one of the field's great masters. It is a book that we have long needed and, in a style that is eminently accessible and enjoyable, plows important new ground. It is a must-read for students just starting out and for scholars charting the field's future.'

- Don Kettl, University of Maryland, US

Elgar Advanced Introductions are stimulating and thoughtful introductions to major fields in the social sciences and law, expertly written by the world's leading scholars. Designed to be accessible yet rigorous, they offer concise and lucid surveys of the substantive and policy issues associated with discrete subject areas.

In this Advanced Introduction, Christopher Pollitt starts a penetrating account of the theories, methods and possible trajectories of the study of public management, also examining the academic community itself, and its relationship to the world of practice. There is no more authoritative - or lively - text of such scope and focus.

This is a stimulating analysis by a leading international scholar. It includes:

- a global overview
- a critical and authoritative analysis of the current state of the field
- the location of academic research firmly in the real world context of austerity, climate and demographic change, and technological transformation
- an examination of the relationship between academic study and the practice of public management
- a look inside the ivory tower, at the forces changing the way the subject is studied and practised

This truly unique work will be of particular interest to graduate students, advanced scholars, lecturers and trainers in public administration, public management, government, public policy, political science and development administration. Middle level and senior practitioners in public administration and public management will also find this an invaluable and sophisticated introduction.
