Do not buy this book.

Really, it's about 50 pages, and filled with juvenile scribbles about hospital food.

Hospital food.

The feared realm said to await the unfortunate who fall ill or injured, and are required to stay long enough to get hungry, and neglected to bring enough money to get constant pizza deliveries.

During a seven and a half week stay in the hospital*, Joseph Picard staved off madness by doodling on the little 'packing slips' that came with every meal, and returned them to the kitchen.
Miraculously, the kitchen staff did not murder him in his sleep.

Inside this tome is a glimpse at the horrors of hospital food.

*Picard had a much longer six month stay in physio rehab, (following the accident that made him a paraplegic,) but he did not document his meals, as madness was kept at bay by some really heavy medication.

The food actually wasn't that bad. Bland... but not bad.*

I was not paid to say that. Honest.*

*Probably honest.
