Guardian Angel Leanne Banks

All Talia McKenzie wants from Trace Barringer is his money—in the form of a donation to her charity. The last thing she needs is the arrogant and sexy businessman muscling his way on to the committee. He may have been the object of her girlhood fantasies, but she stopped believing in fairy tales long ago. Falling for a Barringer, no matter how tempting he is, would mean betraying her own family...

Trace doesn't recognize Talia as the girl he once called his guardian angel. But he does know a challenge when he sees one—and the beautiful deli owner is a definite challenge. Trace is used to getting what he wants, and he wants Talia.

With the passion between them reaching a fever pitch, Talia can't deny her attraction to Trace for long. But how can they build a future when she can't forgive the past?
