8 5/8 x 7 1/2 120 color and 30 black-and-white illustrations US Distribution only photography With its focus on the built-in obstacles of lowlight photography and how to overcome them, this book shows readers ways to maintain consistently accurate exposures, work with slow shutter speeds, and achieve color accuracy with exposures that are measured in minutes. Images from many parts of the world show stunning examples of both indoor and outdoor mixed-lighting conditions. Technically complex but creatively rewarding, the art of lowlight photography is explained lucidly and simply in this problem-solving manual.
